Remarks

The magic of Siesta Key Beach is known worldwide. The white-sand beaches, breathtaking sunsets, the gentle waters of the Gulf of Mexico, the quaint but lively Siesta Key Village's shops, restaurants, sidewalk happy hours and nightlife has made this island a world-class destination for friends and families for decades. The northernmost section of the beach, Sunset Point, is a favorite for locals and those fortunate enough to have a home within this neighborhood: Gulf to the west and Village to the east, and only a few short blocks separating the two! At the center of this is an exceptional three-story home that lies just one block from the beach with great sunset and water views. This well constructed home was designed as side-by-side twin townhomes, with your own two-car garage and private elevator to the beautiful two-level living areas above. The main living area is an open floorplan with high ceilings that incorporates a totally updated kitchen, half bath, and a large dining area followed by the family/tv room with sliders to a balcony looking west to the Gulf and its sunsets. The third level features the primary suite with bath, and a viewing balcony for sunset views and bath. and a second bedroom and bath. Other than the obvious amenities. the beach and the village. there is a good-sized pool
